

Thank you for submitting your request under the California Consumer Privacy Act (the “CCPA”) for specific pieces of personal information we have collected about you over the preceding 12 months. To verify the identity of California residents who request to know the specific pieces of personal information that we have collected about them, we require a signed declaration under penalty of perjury that the requestor of the information is the California resident whose personal information is the subject of the request. To ensure we are able to verify you, please complete the declaration below and sent it to ccpa@eddiebauer.com. If you have any questions or require assistance please call 1-800-426-8020.

I hereby certify under penalty of perjury that I am the California resident whose personal information is the subject of the request for specific pieces of personal information under the California Consumer Privacy Act (Cal. Civ. Code 1798.100 et seq.).

Signature

Print Name

Date